Dear Parents,

Lots to celebrate again this week and thanks to everyone for all the donations for next Friday's FGF Christmas Party. There has been a quite a lot of seasonal non-uniform getting everyone in the festive mood! The party takes place at school from 6:30 to 9pm and includes a disco, raffle and Santa's Grotto - £5 per family.

Have a fantastic weekend,

Mr Ledgard

Quote of the Week

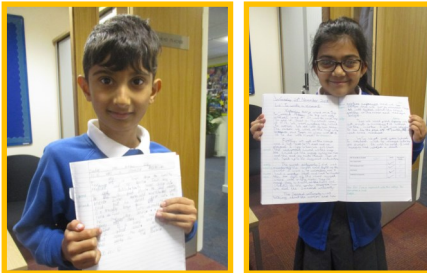

We must have set some sort of record in KS2 assembly today with an astonishing range of skills and talents being celebrated all on one stage - well done to Jack (Blue Peter badge), Paige, Evelyn, Charlotte, Harriet (Dance), Luca (Swimming), Chloe, Tilly, Jessica, Ella (Gymnastics), Sarah, Rhiannon (Baking), Vaishnavi, Advika (Singing), Hazahra (Performance Poetry) and Pavithra (Swimming and Performance Poetry). What a busy bunch of people we have at Grange Farm!

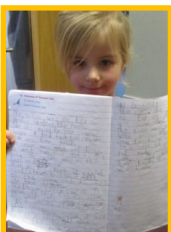

Authors Aplenty

Superb writing has been a theme of this week in school...

Ryan and Isla brought some fabulous work to show me...

A wide array of 5M came down...

And then this afternoon Primrose visited with a fantastic story, earning her own little corner of the newsletter too!

Year 4 Sewing

A lot of proud Year 4's got to the end of their sewing project work this week. Thanks again to Mrs Andrews for all the fantastic support!

Gardening Rocks

Gardening Club dug up a travelling painted rock this week and have sent it back on its travels again...

Advent is upon us

Well, nearly... But Izzy from St James came in for a special advent assembly this week and set the children a lovely advent kindness challenge. A reminder about the festive spirit of Christmas.

A Proud Swimmer

We always like celebrating swimming and Elliot in Year 6 has been doing especially well as part of the City of Coventry team taking part at the recent U-12s national swimming finals!
